Judges Must Be Upright.

"It is true that judges in a country like ours, selected by the accountable to the people, cannot long remain above or below the moral atmosphere of the community. It is the well known duty of every citizen, regardless of his calling or profession, to aid the courts in the administration of justice, and defend the courts in the fearless performance of their duty.

"According to population and wealth, Kansas makes and markets more brick than any other state in the Union, and they are not nearly all used for building purposes. It is customary for a Kansas man to throw bricks at his neighbor as a mere matter of amusement, and when that neighbor happens to be a judge, to 'pull the house down upon him' is great sport indeed.
